

WEB Software Developer (Intermediate)

Job Description:

Under general direction by the COR or authorized Government personnel, develops, codes, tests, and debugs new software and enhancements to existing web software. Competent to work on fairly complex programs with guidance. Works with technical staff to understand problems with web software and resolve them. Duties also involves meeting with government personnel.

Minimum Education Required:

- BS or BA degree in a Computer Science, related field from an accredited college or university.

Minimum Experience Required:

- Experienced in developing React elements to precise specifications, from design mockups. - required
- Experienced in optimizing front end load times, debugging issues, and overall providing a smooth UX/UI to the user. - required
- Required Skills include HTML, JavaScript, CSS, React, Node/Express, MongoDB/JSON, Git. - required
- Must comply with DoD and Army training requirements in DoDD 8570.01, DoD 8570.01-M, and AR 25-2 within six months of employment. Pending further instructions from COR or authorized Government personnel - required

Minimum Experience Recommended:

- Experience requirements include five or more years of intensive and progressive experience in software development, or five years with duties specific to the tasks described in 1.5. - recommended
- Educational requirement may be Associate Degree in Computer Science with 7 or more years of intensive and progressive experience in software development, or five years with duties specific to the tasks described in 1.5. - recommended
- Experience with accredited higher education institutions, specifically with developing or maintaining student information systems, grading, student progress, registrar, student progress, assessment standards, and graduation standards. – recommended

Contractor personnel shall be available virtually between 7:45 am – 4:45 pm (Pacific) Monday through Friday except Federal holidays.

The highest level of security classification for work under this task order is UNCLASSIFIED.